ABOUT THE SHOWCASE

The Sports Illustrated Prodigy Showcase, presented by Prospects by Sports Illustrated (PSI), stands as PSI's premier soccer event, designed specifically for youth athletes and their families.

PSI is renowned for its commitment to the athletes' experience, selecting venues and accommodations with families in mind. With a focus on clear communication and comprehensive support, PSI ensures that attending teams are well-informed and at ease throughout the event.

This tournament is proudly hosted in collaboration with Central Illinois United (CIU), with all CIU teams committing to attend.

Furthermore, the University of Illinois will play a prominent role in the showcase, featuring a training session during the event at the field, as well a Q&A with the teams players and coaches for aspiring players.
